

The Greater Moncton Chamber of Commerce salutes the selection of Wes Armour to the Order of Canada.

Governor General David Johnston announced Mr. Armour's selection as a member of the Order in December, 2016. Mr. Armour was cited for his leadership as an entrepreneur and for his dedication to his home community of Greater Moncton.

Armour Transportation Systems is one of Greater Moncton's outstanding business success stories. Under his leadership, Armour has grown to include more than 4,000 pieces of equipment, 2,000 employees, 26 freight terminals and 700,000 square feet of public warehouse space.

Armour Transportation is a long-time member of the GMCC.
