Chamber of Commerce for Greater Moncton to host Moncton-Riverview-Dieppe election debate

The Chamber of Commerce for Greater Moncton is organizing a debate for the Moncton Riverview Dieppe federal riding candidates in partnership with the Greater Moncton Realtors and Rogers TV on October 15, 2019, at the Dieppe Arts and Cultural Centre starting at 6:30 p.m.

The debate will be recorded and broadcast on Rogers TV. Questions will be asked in both official languages by three journalists from media organization of our region.

The questions will address a wide range of issues important to entrepreneurs and residents of our three communities.

"It is important that our members and residents of the three communities have the opportunity to learn more about the different platforms of the parties and the candidates in our region", said John Wishart, CEO of the Chamber.

Sylvie Godin-Charest of the Conservative Party of Canada, Claire Kelly of the Green Party of Canada, Ginette Petitpas Taylor of the Liberal Party of Canada, Luke MacLaren of the New Democratic Party, and Stephen Driver of the People's Party of Canada have confirmed they will participate in the debate.

The debate is open to the public. Doors will open at 6 p.m.
